

CREFC EMAIL WHITELISTING GUIDE

A Quick Reference for Your IT Department

As part of your CREFC membership, you receive important industry communications, membership updates, event invitations, regulatory alerts, policy and advocacy news, educational resources, and transactional-based email from CREFC. To ensure these valuable communications reach your inbox reliably, we recommend sharing this document with your IT department so they can whitelist our sending infrastructure.

WHY WHITELIST CREFC?

Stay Informed

Never miss critical industry updates, regulatory changes, or time-sensitive announcements that impact your business.

Event Access

Ensure you receive registration links, early registration offers, and logistics for CREFC conferences and networking events.

Member-Exclusive Content

Receive research, publications, and resources available only to CREFC members.

Optimize CREFC Emails to Your Inbox

Whitelisting ensures our emails land in your primary inbox — not your spam or junk folder — so you can engage with them on your terms.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR IT DEPARTMENTS

To ensure uninterrupted delivery of CREFC communications, please whitelist the following IP addresses in your email gateway, spam filter, and/or firewall:

204.156.165.117	69.72.45.20
204.156.165.120	69.72.39.145
205.201.40.175	198.244.56.18
161.38.197.185	8.80.38.61
161.38.193.72	54.166.12.81
161.38.199.137	44.208.180.248
69.72.40.213	23.20.109.149
198.244.48.62	54.87.236.226
161.38.203.217	44.206.127.189
161.38.202.169

WE ALSO RECOMMEND

- Adding @crefc.org to your organization's safe sender/allowed domain list.
- Ensuring these IPs and domains are permitted through any advanced threat protection or email security appliances (e.g., Mimecast, Proofpoint, Barracuda, Microsoft Defender for Office 365, Google Workspace filters, etc.).

QUESTIONS?

If your IT team has any questions or needs additional technical details, please don't hesitate to contact us: info@crefc.org.

We're happy to work with your team to ensure seamless delivery.

Thank you for being a valued CREFC member. We're committed to keeping you connected to the information and community that matter most to your business.